

Network to Work – Participant Guide July 2025

Cover Letters for 2025's Mature Worker

Welcome! Don't Forget to Sign-In and turn in your JSAL & Resume

Network to Work Lessons & Materials are on the Participant Portal at:
A4td.org / a4tdtraining

Meeting Ground Rules:

- Silence your phones
- Maintain Confidentiality
- Listen to others
- Participate
- Use the Parking Lot

Today's Agenda:

1. Introductions:

- Tell us your name and job goal or current training.
- Icebreaker Question: What's something you want to get better at?

2. Review Last Month:

- May – Resumes (June was on Professionalism)
- Your homework was to use the resources in your May Participant Packet and go online to <https://www.careeronestop.org/JobSearch/Resumes/ResumeGuide/Introduction.aspx> and build your updated resume! Please turn those in today.

3. This Month:

- Cover Letters:
 - We will review the resources at CareerOneStop
- Your homework will be to use the cover letter templates to create your personal cover letter template.

4. Celebrations!

- Please share your achievements: Classes taken, Training received, and Jobs!

5. Programmatic Assurances:

You must notify A4TD RC/CPMA:

- if your personal information changes (address, phone number, email, etc)
- if there are any changes to your family, income, or employment status
- if, during training, you become the relative or domestic partner of another participant or of personnel at your host agency

6. Workplace Safety Video:

- Link: <https://youtu.be/FkkwG4t7gBU?si=OkrCm-sFHRec7Xqc>
- Safety: A Waste of Time?

Aren't all these safety meetings a big waste of time? C'mon, really! What are the chances I could get killed at work? In the U.S., for every 100 hundred thousand workers, more than 3 will die this year in a workplace incident. More than 3 of every hundred workers will get seriously injured or ill from a workplace incident.

7. A4TD News:

- SCSEP Orientations – Please see flyer on page 5 of this packet to share with friends and family that may also benefit from this program.
- Upcoming A4TD Closures: July 4, 2025 and September 1, 2025

8. Timesheet Reminders:

- Names, Places, Dates, Signatures: All must be filled out!
- Do not forget to total in both the right hand column and at the bottom
- Offsite training must be explained with the hours breakdown and name of the provider (organization, school, or online platform)
- It is your responsibility to save your paystubs.

9. Next Meeting:

- _____ day, August _____, 2025 at _____

Cover Letters using CareerOneStop

A4TD works closely with our local American Job Centers to guide you on your job search journey. During your time in the SCSEP program with A4TD, you are expected to register with the local American Job Center and use their job readiness resources.

Today we will go over the online resources the American Job Centers provide for Cover Letters online at their CareerOneStop site. We encourage you to meet with the certified resume coaches at the local American Job Center.

Your homework assignment for this Network to Work Meeting is to create a sample cover letter for yourself using the resources and links below and bring it to the September NTW Meeting.

Please access this document, and all the links and editable templates at:
